

JASON RICCI AND MICHAEL PELOQUIN AT RINGSIDE

Wednesday night December 8, 2005 I'm anticipating a great night of harp music at the Ringside. I brought a co-worker with me last year to see Jason and when he heard Jason was back he wanted to come again, can you blame him. I only had one condition, I told him I stay till the band leaves.

It was nice to see Gus from Gainesville at this event and a new member Larry who was also at the seminar. We had a good time and well needless to say Jason was smoking the joint. I found myself wondering if he was ever going to rest. The energy and excitement that filled the place was electric.

Jason had Michael play several songs with him which was really a nice combination. After about three and half hours Jason decided we'd all heard enough and it all ended. Well all good things come to an end and this was no different, but of course I knew that I was coming back on the 9th for his second show, and what a show it was!

Check out the gallery section on the site for pictures from that night and also I have some short video clips (they don't do it justice, but you'll get the idea). Overall on a scale from 1 to 10, I'd give this gig a 15, just because it's Jason and he definitely works for it!!
