

JASON RICCI, MICHAEL PELOQUIN SEMINAR

Well I must say I was very impressed with the number of people that showed. Although it seemed like it might be hard to have it in this place it turned out ok! Once it got started their playing blocked out any distractions at least for me. I think the fight that broke out at the bar just added to the atmosphere☺.

The seminar progressed nicely and I think everyone that got to play on JR's mic during the small jam session had to be a little impressed! This was my first time meeting Michael, he was a very impressive harp player to say the least and a heck of a nice guy, I hope he comes back to Florida. (Played sax also at Ringside gig, WOW! SEE review)

I actually learned something and quite honestly I didn't come there expecting too. I found that Jason's not just a great harp player he's really is a fantastic teacher. Michael supplied some, one on one instruction to those that wanted it, I couldn't make the time but I know several who did, loved to hear from you. Overall the seminar was a stunning success, the 3 hours blew by and in the end we have the memories of sitting around chatting with some serious talent. As far as harp playing goes, it doesn't get much better. Later!
